

The Crossroads at Independence

Property Summary

The Crossroads at Independence is a neighborhood shopping center at the signalized intersection of Independence Boulevard and Carolina Beach Road (NC 421) in Wilmington, NC. Anchored by a large format Harris-Teeter grocery store, the project is strategically located between RiverLights — a major new development along the Cape Fear River, the redevelopment of Echo Farms country club into numerous residential neighborhoods, and The Pointe at Barclay, a new retail/entertainment center anchored by a 14-screen luxury theater.

Highlights:

- At the intersection of two high volume commuter routes;
- Large existing residential population with several more projects approved and underway;
- Excellent access and visibility;
- On the going home/to the beach side of the highway.
